

SPARK SYMPOSIUM 2018

CURATORIAL PRACTICE UNPACKED

NT
CURATOR
PROGRAM

Presented by Artback NT in association with
Godinymayin Yijard Rivers Arts & Culture Centre

SPARK
AN ARTBACK NT INITIATIVE

Saturday 7 July, 10am – 8pm
GYRACC, Katherine

KEYNOTE

The Go-Between: the role of a curator

Dr. Wendy Garden, Acting Manager of Exhibitions, MAGNT

CURATORIAL CASE STUDIES 1

Yidumduma Bill Harney, Bush Professor exploring an artist's practice
Margie West, Independent Curator

Tell: Indigenous Photography investigating a specific medium
Jessica Clark, Independent Curator

Fecund: Fertile Worlds expanding on a particular theme
Clare Armitage, Curator, GYRACC and inaugural SPARK NT Curator

Presentations followed by Q&A session chaired by Dr. Wendy Garden

CURATORIAL CASE STUDIES 2

NGURRA: home in the Ngaanyatjarra Lands working with community
Glenn Iseger-Pilkington, Curator and Creative Arts Consultant

Tjungunutja: from having come together working with a collection
Luke Scholes, Curator of Aboriginal Art, MAGNT and Bobby West
Tjupurrula, Artist and Co-curator

*The Djalkiri Project: We are standing on their names -
Blue Mud Bay* starting with a project
Angus and Rose Cameron, Co-directors NOMAD Art Productions

Presentations followed by Q&A session chaired by John Waight

PROFESSIONAL PATHWAYS

The Accidental Curator: a personal perspective

Dr. Cath Bowdler, Independent Curator and Writer

From Idea to Exhibition: lightbulbs and logistics

Panel discussion followed by break-out sessions

SPARK NT Curator Program Info Session

Jo Foster, Visual Arts Manager, Artback NT

EVENING PERFORMANCE

Djilpin Dancers performance of White Cockatoo

FREE EVENT - LUNCH AND EVENING MEAL PROVIDED

PLACES LIMITED - RSVP art@artbacknt.com.au / (08) 8953 5941

